Lehigh Valley Television Production Company Signs Deal with Hollywood Producers to Launch TV Series and Documentary Film

EASTON, Pa. - Green Leaf Productions announced a partnership with Douglas Schwartz, best known as Executive Producer and creator of "Baywatch" to launch a television series entitled "Art Everywhere". They have also partnered with Lloyd Bryan Adams, best known as Executive Producer of the Outdoor Channel and creator of the Fuel Channel, to release an HBO/Showtime documentary called "Remember Us".

"Working with these Hollywood legends is really a great opportunity for Green Leaf Productions," said Rudy Vegliante Pres./CEO of Green Leaf Productions. "We are pleased that both Schwartz and Adams see the value in our shows. We look forward to a successful partnership."

"'Art Everywhere' is in negotiations with several national channels such as Bravo, TLC and Style," said Vegliante. This half-hour TV series focuses on the fact that art truly is everywhere in our lives. Looking at the world through a different set of lenses, this series will take us around the globe from the pyramids of Egypt to a garlic festival in Iowa to highlight art in our everyday lives.

"'Remember Us' is a collection of stories of the Hungarian hidden children of the Holocaust and is currently under discussion for airing at HBO and Showtime. During World War II only 11% of Jewish children survived the Holocaust. This documentary highlights how these children survived. "We chose this topic because we wanted their stories to be told. There were people who opened their hearts and homes to help these children and that is a part of history that needs to be shared," said Vegliante.

Other current local TV shows produced by Green Leaf Productions include: "Navigating your Life with Dr. Nat Williams", "At Home Experts", "Profiles Inside and Out", "SteelStacks Live" and in pre-production is "Center Stage Sessions".
